Now I want

In for a penny, in for a pound.
 Now I want to tell you about a teenage-boy who wanted to stay at home for any reasons and what an excellent influence teachers have.

One day our main character begged to stay at home. So anyway, when his mother went to work, he took a phone in order to call his teacher. The boy told her that he felt very ill, his temperature was very high and he had a cough. Dima, that's the name of ^{the} boy, thought: "The fat is in the fire!" and started watching TV. Suddenly his teacher appeared in front of him. "You will be punished. I will give you so much homework that you couldn't breathe" - whispered she. Dima was frightened. He looked at the teacher and realized that it was a ghost in big brown glasses with a pen in its hand. It wore a black sequenced shirt, white blouse with long sleeves and two pockets. ^{Then Dima} found out that it was a dream, but such a horror dream, that he decided to go to school immediately.

That's how the teacher's ghost influenced ^{on a} the situation and improved Dima's marks and behaviours.

Now I will tell you a story about my participating in English language contest. It's a good example of why we have to everything in time. So let's begin!

As I scored enough to take part in the next part of English language contest I was in right to stay at home for a day. But I was so silly and I stayed at home for 2 days! That's why I had several problems. But that's not the main idea. Yesterday morning my mum woke me up because my teacher called me by phone. She asked me: "Why aren't you at school?! You should come here immediately!". (~~Getting to school wasn't~~) But getting to school was not the main problem although I wasn't ready for many subjects. The main problem was that I had to bring to my teacher a photograph of me. This photo was necessary for taking part in my English language contest. But I didn't have ¹⁵⁰ such a photograph at home; that's why I had to visit a photographer and take photos.

So, that is just what I did. But after getting my photocard I realised that I had not enough money to drive to school. "What a smart aleck I am!" So I had to return home very fast and then go to school. I got to school very late and my teacher was so upset... But I finally could ~~come~~ go home and ~~go~~ go on preparing to my next contest.

So this short story is an example of why we should always hear what our teachers say very patiently. Also I wanted to tell you that we must go do everything in time if we don't want to get into trouble. "Better later than never!"

It was in the 20th century. A group of teenagers decided to visit a very old house of murdered hostess. Many people said that the house was full of mysterious things and even ghosts. Nobody allowed to come there.

Mary, Mike and Rob were friends and one day Rob, a sportsman with blue eyes came to Mary and said that he would go to that old house to know its secrets that night. Mary and Mike decided to go with him that night.

friends were in ^{the} dark clothes because they didn't want somebody to spot them. Mary lit lights and they came in. But when friends all came the door became closed. Teens felt very scared. Some kind of voices were in their heads and then they heard a loud scream...

In the morning magazine there was just one red title: "Three kids were murdered in the old house this night"... 1520

That's happened ten years ago. It was a regular day. I was getting prepared for my exams when somebody knocked at the door. When I opened it I saw my best friend Tommy. He wore very strange clothes like big hat, long black coat, black suit and dark glasses. I asked him: "Is any masquerade today?". He told me that he was in mafia family ~~then~~ that days.

I invited him in the house, but he didn't come in. He ~~suggested~~ me to help him. I agreed. I sat in his car and we drove to the General street. He stopped the car near one house. We went out the car and started to search one man. Tommy found him. It was little old man wit big mustache. My friend told me that this is our target. We had to identify him...

I woke up in my bed. I found out that this was just a dream. Is it so? I think it is. Then I understood that I have never had a friend named Tommy!

A young woman called Ann is a person who likes travelling a lot. She has visited five countries and from each she got a souvenir.

Last week Ann was in India. It was a sunny day when Ann decided to go for a walk. She was wearing a dress coloured just like the sky. She had been walking for a long time and when she came home she was shocked. A little kitten was sitting on her bed. She told him to go away but the kitten continued sitting on the bed. He looked very frightened. Ann gave him milk and he drank it. Then he sat on her knees and fell asleep.

Ann liked the kitten very much and decided to take him with her. That's

No pain, no gain.

I would like to tell you a story about real success, about motivation, which is very important and necessary in our life.

In one small town a young man, whose name is Jack, was living his usual and boring life. He was going to look forward to a new job, but he was a really lazy person. Jack was watching TV all day long and couldn't start doing anything more important. However, he met his elder brother Michel, who was very hardworking. Michel said Jack that he must find a good job to become the better version of himself. *gr.

 Michel motivated Jack to start working. Jack became an ambitious man, he was wearing black or blue costumes with expensive shoes and watches. Jack understood the meaning of the widespread proverb "no pain, no gain". gr.

A Friend in Need is a Friend Indeed.

It was Monday. I got up at 7, had breakfast and went to school. All the lessons passed quickly ^{I came home and everything was fine} until the door bell rang.

I knew that none of my family could come home at before 6 o'clock. I looked in the door eye. A strange man at the age of 50 was standing with a black packet in his hands, wearing dark clothes. I asked him: "Who are you?" He answered that he is a postman. ~~His~~ ~~the~~ ~~an~~ His answer made me feel a bit scared as he couldn't be a postman. I started texting my friend Kate that I had nature James's parents decided to stay at the very pre-

At the next day, as soon as James woke up, he asked gr his parents to go to the zoo. After a long conversation gr.
They agreed and ordered a taxi. Entering a zoo they saw a tall man with a black beard. He looked very angry due to his face, which was very similar to a gorilla's. However this man who was a zookeeper was very nice and gr helped James' family to navigate in this large area. Many years ago after this trip James could not forget this big and kind man.

Dear Ben

Thank you for your letter.

No we haven't this day, but it is good to save the Earth. And I will turn off lights in this day because it's good to save electric energy. People can turn off lights when they go out of room, don't spend electric energy on not important things. Buy only lamps, which don't spend a lot of energy. And people should join in Green Movement, Because this Green Movement protect not only electric energy. They protect nature (grow trees, flowers, bush), protect animals. We all can save our planet (from) but all people must protect nature and animals, spend electric energy, pollute atmosphere, water.

Sorry but I'm in a hurry

Best wishes

Dear Ben,

Thank you for your letter. I couldn't answer to you earlier. I am glad that you had the Earth hour. I am proud of you. It is very important for our planet.

In my town we had no the Earth day. But it is very interesting, I will ask my teacher about it. I want to know a lot of information. We had no the Earth day but some people do special groups. They ~~also~~ clean streets, clean seashores (in other cities). They try to solve ecological problems. Some people don't use cars and buses. They use a bike. They turn off the light they don't need. They save electricity, water. They don't dump rubbish in the streets. I want to enter these groups. It is very interesting and important. We must protect our planet! People protect forests, animals' habitats.

Sorry I must do my homework.

Dear Ben,

Thank you for your letter. It is really interesting to hear about this special day.

In your letter you asked me about having this day in Russia and what can people do to save energy.

I have never heard about Earth hour in my country but I think it is very important and useful day. In my opinion everyone should do something to save energy. For example turn off light when you go to sleep or if you

Dear Ben,

You wrote me about the Earth Hour and I would like to tell you about this tradition in our country. We are especially not have the Earth Hour but usually have some days when we speak about problems of the Earth. In one of them we have spoken about some energy. I thought that people use to much energy every day. They use it in the evening and sometimes forget to turn the lights off. I think that people should use sun energy batteries, because sun doesn't hurt our planet. I think that the Green Movement is right and we should have more Earth Hours because only people can save our planet.

 Hope you'll write me soon.

Dear Ben,

Thanks a lot for your last letter. It was nice to hear from you again. In your letter you asked me some questions. Now I am going to answer.

As for us, people don't have ^{the} Earth Hour but we have Earth Day. It is one day without electricity. All the people can save electricity. They have just to turn off the light or lamp when they are leaving a room or house. Also they can use energy save lamps. As for me, I agree with ^{the} Green Movement because this project can save much electricity and this short period of time can save ^{the} Earth.

Well, that's all for now, because I have to go to school. Write back soon.

Hi Ben,

Thanks for your letter! That was so interesting! Unfortunately in my country we do not have such ~~a~~ the Earth Hour as in your town. I hope it will appear in our country, too. I think people should not waste energy for no reason. And they should use it carefully and economically. Also people can use energy of the sun to economize electric energy. I approve of the Green Movement, because it's important to show humans that nature, energy and minerals are not endless. In my opinion if people would do most of these actions, we could save the world!

Dear Ben,

Thank you for your letter. I was so glad to hear from you again.

In our country there isn't the Earth Hour. But I think it is a good idea to add it.

In my opinion people should turn the lights off when they leave the room. And it will be very useful to use modern lamps because they use less electricity.

I am of course approving the Green Movement because people should take care of our planet and protect it.

Are there ecological problems in your town? Do you struggle with them? What are you doing to protect the environment?

Best wishes

Paul.

But it is very sad to see rubbish on the earth.
People in our town don't care about when they are

Dear Ben,

Thank you for your letter. It is ~~re~~ great to hear from you. I'm really glad to hear that your country has this special day. It would be really helpful for our planet. However, my country doesn't have ~~such~~ ^{this} day. In my opinion, ~~it's~~ ~~so~~ it's not people ~~has~~ must save energy in everyday life. Hi, Ben!

I was glad to receive your letter. All that you had written was very interesting. It was great event but unfortunately in my country people didn't have the Earth Hour. In my opinion the idea of Earth Hour that was offered by Green Movement is beautiful because nowadays the problem of ecological situation on our planet is very important and big. People spend a lot of energy and do not think about it, they forget to switch off the light and do many other things that bring harm to ecological situation. People should save energy in their everyday life and such organisations as Green Movement must help them toⁱⁿ do it.

Do you agree with me or you don't? Write me soon! I will be waiting for it!

Best wishes,
Kristina

Dear Ben,

How are you? Thanks for lettering. In your letter you asked me some questions.

As I know, we don't have the Earth Hour in our country, but I can be false. I think it's very important to save energy because our planet is in danger. To save the energy people shouldn't leave the light turned on in every part of flat. It's easy but very useful. I like the idea of the Green Movement. People used natural resources for so many years and maybe it's good for humankind but not for our planets.

nature. Men have to think about natural problems more often.

Sorry, but I have to finish the letter because I have loads of homework.

Thank you for your last letter. I was happy to hear about the special day in your town and lots of towns around. It was so interesting to read about one of the ideas of an ecological group.

We have such ideas too. People have the Earth Hour in Russia. And the Earth Hour recently was in my town. People can help our planet. For example, people can use energy saved lamps and other electric things. And we should remember to turn off the light. In my opinion, it is very important problem.

Dear pal,

Thanks a lot for your letter. Sorry that I didn't answer you before because I was very busy.

Anyway, in your previous letter you've asked me some questions about Earth hour and Green movement. Like other big countries Russia has Earth hour and its own Green movement too. At the present time humanity has a lot of problems with ecology and environment like pollutions and Greenhouse effect. People in Russia struggle with it too.

Often^{or} they clean up streets or even neighborhoods by their own effort. Recycle garbage and other trash. I approve of the Green movement because I think if people don't take care of our planet, we will live in rather bad conditions.

I think I'd finish now because I need to help my mother about the house.

Best wishes,
Nazar

Dear Ben,

Sorry, I haven't answered you before, I was really busy ~~because~~ with school stuff and exams. In your last letter you told me about the Earth Hour and asked me some questions about it. GT

You asked me if we have the Earth Hour in my country. Yes, we have, but there isn't one in my town, which is really sad. Our planet is slowly dying and no one wants to think about that. I read this article once and it said that if ~~we keep polluting Earth in 2050 nothing will save our planet from dying.~~ Terrifying, right? There are so many things people can do to stop Earth from dying, but not all of them want to. To save energy people can turn off the lights, TV when they are not using them. Even small things like that can make a big change. Lucky But there is still hope. People who started the Green Hope ^{Movement} can stop us from doing stupid things. There is still a way we can stop Earth from dying.

There is no bad weather, there are only bad clothes.

I love to travel. My whole family has always been fond of travelling. Every year we prefer to visit different cities.

Last August my aunt and I went to Moscow. We thought it would be warm there as it was summer. But the weather wasn't that good. It was rainy, cold and unpleasant. However, we didn't mind. We had come to Moscow to visit interesting places, to meet new people and just to have fun. Nothing could stop us. My aunt and I decided to go to a shopping centre to buy new clothes because we had nothing warm to put on. Three hours later we got dressed. My aunt asked me how she looked in brand-new clothes. She was wearing a T-shirt, two sweaters, a huge coat, two pairs of trousers and high boots. She looked so funny! But who cares? Now we could go for a walk.

Remember that there is never bad weather. All you have to do is to put on suitable clothes and go ahead.

I really enjoy swimming. If I was could, I would spend my whole free time just crossing the pool from one side to another again and again. Despite that, let me tell you about one occasion.

SP

Last year I woke up one morning and found myself unwilling to go to the swimming pool. It was really strange, so I didn't attend my swimming class that day. The moment the lessons were over, my best friend phoned me and asked why I hadn't ~~then~~ come to the training. After my description of that strange ~~feeling~~ ^{seeing} she promised to come to see me. We spent the whole Sunday together talking about things that which inspire us in swimming.

I felt much better after that talk as she managed to make the spark in my heart burn again. I am so happy that she is ~~me~~ my friend! 143 ends

"No good deed should be overshadowed"

A wise man once said, "No bad deed should be forgiven for a great speech and no good deed should be overshadowed by rude speech". Many people think otherwise.

The following story is an example of such thinking.

Once upon a time, a Chinese man came to London. As he was crossing a bridge one day, he witnessed a car accident and rushed to lift a car that was flipped over and had the driver trapped inside. He saved the driver but

 The driver, dressed in an expensive suit, said: "How dare you ^{man} managed to ~~to~~ calm him down.

but This story shows that people only react to negative things and ignore all else.

East or West, home is the best. +

SP Some centuries ago there lived a young man Arthur Morgan. He lived in a small village and every day worked on a farm. But his heart wanted to make a journey!

So one day he wore his best clothes, took some food and money, and went away. His outfit was perfect. Brand new black hat, brown leather jacket with beautiful pockets and blue jeans. Firstly, he moved to a small town, called Blackwater. He didn't enjoy it because people there weren't friendly.

SP Then he went to Valentine. It was ^{Gr} beautiful town but people there weren't fr didn't like strangers. Arthur felt very lonely there so he decided to go back to his village, where he had friends and family. When he came back he understood, that his home is the best place in the world. 100

The Journey to Berlin.

Once upon a time Ann, a well-behaved Oxford's student, decided to go to a place where she hadn't been before. She was eager to have some new emotions to visit new places. So Berlin was the best variant to give go.

During her holidays she bought a ticket and flew to Berlin. When she arrived she asked "What the beautiful city!" ~~her~~ ^{her} ~~crowds~~ ^{crowds} of people, traffic jams, high buildings. Every day she went sightseeing, shopping and ~~to~~ did whatever she like. One day when she had packed tour she met a girl from Spain. She was wearing ^{rather} ridiculous clothes: a straw dress, weird big shoes and bright hat. But never judge people by their appearance. The true colours of a person you can learn only by the things they do. And this woman, called Lily, was not only understanding and clever, but also her essence was very nice.

So Ann and Lily became the best friends and always supported

Be yourself

I am going to write a short story about how music can change one's life. Actually music is very important for us. It develops us culturally. Sometimes when I listen to music it takes me away from reality. So, I want to tell you about my friend. He's a tall boy with long hair and mysterious eyes. He always wore dressed in black clothes and looked sad moody. But one day he decided to go to the school of music. It has changed his life. He began to show his feeling through music and it helped him to be himself. Now I see that he is happy

In conclusion, I should say that music can help you to be yourself. Just begin to sing ~~if~~ even if you can't and you will see how it'll change you. ~~that just be yourself and music can help you with it~~ that it is important to be yourself and music can help us with it. Music makes us happy.

"You should be confident in any situation!"

Last year my friend and I went to France. We had waited for this trip for few months and we were really excited to go there finally.

When we arrived at a hotel our holidays had begun. During two weeks we were visiting museums, different art galleries, places of interest, monuments, restaurants and cafes. One day we saw an announcement of the fashion show which was held by a famous designer. We decided to go there because it was near our hotel. A few moments later we were standing in the queue and impatiently waiting for our tickets. The show began with a dance and a colourful presentation. Then we got a bit disappointed. The models looked ridiculous on their high-heeled shoes and in shapeless dresses. The last model was in the biggest dress, but she unexpectedly fell down on the half of her way. People around her stood up immediately and ~~decided~~^{wanted} to help, but she calmly rose up and ~~ended~~^{finished} perfectly.

After that we saw her interview and thought that it was worth it anyway. The model said "You should look beautiful", I was told during my life, so this is my advice for you. Never give up. You should be confident in any situation. There always are people to help and protect you in trouble."

Tastes are differ.

There are 7 billion people in the world. All of them are different. They like different things: food, clothes and even their hobbies are not the same. It is an amazing thing! But why do not they like doing the same hobbies and eating the same food? Let us answer this question.

Scientists from England say that all people have different DNA. This is why all of us are different.
"If you see twins, they will have different interests" too* They look the same their appearance is the same.

Their clothes can be the same too, but they like doing different things! - says Dr. Jark.

That's why we are so interesting. All of us have our own thoughts. We like wearing different things:
a red trousers, a white T-shirt. We do different things!
One girl likes to wear converse and blue jeans, while another girl prefers wearing pink dresses.

How many languages you know, so many times you're a man.

She had to go to China because of her job. It was a conference with one of the Chinese companies. She translated the words of her general principal to the Chinese. When she did this, her opponents were discussing in Chinese for a long time, and then their translator gave a short answer. It lasted until the woman came in and offered some tea. My main character answered she didn't want any tea in Chinese, either. Her opponents were really shocked. After that they didn't discuss anything ~~or~~ giving short answers at once, because they didn't want the Russian translator to understand their speech. The companies ~~After list~~ signed a very profitable agreement.

After listening to this story, I made a conclusion: it's very necessary to know different languages.

The story I want to write is about strange situation that happened to me and my close friend Mr Garrison.

To begin with, Me and Mr Garrison lived in a small house near the big forest and my friend was big lover of exploring strange animals, insects, fish etc. in this forest. As for me I didn't like this kind of hobbies so I seldom went with Garrison to his explorations. One day, he usually went to the forest, but in one hour he returned

A very strange look. He was in weird feelings:
fear mixed with surprise and happiness. He said he had found a golden insect and ^{asked} me to go with him. So we went to the forest and found this insect.
I couldn't believe my eyes but it was really golden heavy and big.

Even now, after two years we don't know to what to do with this exploration but I am sure it should become famous.

Heroism Makes People Beautiful

Parents say to their children that they must be confident and help other people. Sometimes it is very difficult but it is really. You can choose examples from history of your country or from all over the world.

Zoya was a little, nice and pretty girl. She completed her school and then began the war. Zoya was very behaviour. She helped lots of people during this event. Finally, she was killed. Her heroism was exciting.

rep. 25, 1000 - 10

We must take the example of this girl we can live quietly and very happily in easy life but we should remember that generosity makes people beautiful.

Once in a blue moon.

Jim was a common office worker and had a very low salary. The salary wasn't enough to live on but he had no choice. His boss was a very strict and rude man and he always refused to enlarge Jim's salary.

One day, Jim decided to check his luck. He went to the shop and asked for a couple of lottery tickets. The checkout girl looked at him with a laughter. "Do you really think that you can win?" - she asked, but ~~Jim~~ Jim didn't answer, he came home and scratched a special layer on the tickets. The first ticket had no money but another one had a big sum of money. It was 100.000 $. Jim was very lucky to win such a great fortune.

The next day Jim set on a trip to the Brazil, where he met a beautiful girl and got married. She was dark haired and her eyes were blue. She had a great body and a very pretty face. Since then Jim's life was full of love and happiness.

Once upon a time a little girl with her elder brother were watching the family photo album. „Hey, do you remember when that photo was taken?“ - said ~~the~~ John family.

In the picture there was a little girl with very ridiculous hat. She wore a funny purple dress and huge ^{brown} glasses. „Just turn on the page, please“ - asked a girl his brother, but he didn't want to do this. John was laughing while his little sister started to cry. „OK, calm down.“ - asked John politely and Make a wish.

Once upon a time there lived a boy. His name was James and he was very sad. James had a sister. Her name was Sally. She was a very nice girl. She was tall and thin. Her hair was red and curly. She had blue eyes and adored to laugh. Sally hated when her brother was sad or angry. He shouted too loudly and cried a lot. One day she was watching TV. There was a serious man in a black costume. He said that you would have everything if only you made a wish! Sally got an idea.

She came to James and gave him some sweets. When her brother ate them, she said she made a wish and sweets were magical. Now James couldn't be sad. James wanted to cry but he really couldn't. He wasn't sad anymore.

A friend in need is a friend indeed.

Spain is a very beautiful country with rich cultural heritage. During the vacation with my friends we decided to visit the national festival in the centre of Barcelona. It was a week of surprises so I would like to tell you a story about the accident when my best friend didn't leave me alone and helped me to cope with problem.

It was a very beautiful event. We were wearing national dresses with traditional hats in Spain. Our travelling was by car so it didn't take too much time to get to the destination. On our way to the festival my car broke down.

I didn't know what to do so we decided to ask someone for help. The vast majority of my friends left me alone but only my best friend stayed with me. She told me not to get upset. Then we found local people who helped us and continued our travelling.

To sum up, I would like to say that we must choose only true friends. It is better to have one reliable friend than a lot of friends who can let you down in difficult situations.

I am going to tell you the story about two girls who were at the shop in the evening.

Once upon a time two friends decided to go shopping. They went to the best shop in their town. In the middle of their walk they heard loud sirens. And the man called "Night" appeared. This man was a serial killer who usually found his victims at big events. This man came to girls and said "Happy New Year".
